1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic is committed to ensuring that children and young people who participate in its activities have a safe and happy experience. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic supports and respects children, young people, staff, volunteers and participants.
- 1.2. The aim of this is to protect the safety of children in our care and prevent abuse from occurring, and in the event that allegations are raised in relation to child abuse, to ensure that the allegations are properly addressed. All complaints will be treated seriously and fully investigated and handled with maximum confidentiality and discretion.
- 1.3. Should a person wish to make any enquiries in relation to this Policy, please contact the Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic office on 0430 312 252 and ask to speak to the CEO.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

- 2.1. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic is committed to providing the highest level of membership service. This includes protecting members' privacy, promoting positive behaviours and attitudes, protecting the health safety and wellbeing of members, particularly children.
- 2.2. Specifically, Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic considers that the health, safety and well-being of children take priority over all other competing considerations. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic considers that this is necessary to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all members and to protect the image and reputation of the sport, Organisation and its affiliate members.

- 2.3. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic has a zero tolerance approach to child abuse and is committed to promoting and protecting children from abuse and neglect to the greatest extent possible. All children have equal rights to protection from child abuse, regardless of their sex, religion, disability or sexual orientation etc.
- 2.4. Child protection is a shared responsibility between Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic, its employees, workers, contractors, associates, parents/guardians, coaches, spectators, volunteers and members of the canoeing community. Everyone that participates in Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic's activities is responsible for the care and protection of children, and reporting information about child abuse.
- 2.5. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic supports the active participation of all children. It listens to their views, respects their views and involves them when making decisions, where appropriate, especially about matters that will directly affect them (including their safety).
- 2.6. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic is also committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children, and those from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children living with a disability.
- 2.7. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic promotes fairness and consideration for all staff, volunteers and participants. For further details please refer to the Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic Member Protection Policy.

3. SCOPE

- 3.1. This Policy applies to participants, parents, spectators, contractors, officials, coaches, judges and staff throughout all Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic events and activities.
- 3.2. This Policy will continue to apply retrospectively to a person or Member following the cessation of their association or employment with Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic.
- 3.3. Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic is supported by a wide network of affiliated clubs across Victoria. Affiliation with Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic is conditional on an affiliated club implementing, and complying with this Policy. Failure to implement and comply with this Policy may cause Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic to end its affiliation with a club that is in breach of its obligations.

4. RELATED DOCUMENTS & LEGISLATIVE REQUIREMENTS

- (b) Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic policies and procedures, including but not limited to:
1. Privacy Policy;
 2. Constitution;
 3. Codes of behaviour;
 4. Member Protection Policy;
 5. Grievance and Discipline procedures; and
 6. Photography Policy

5. DEFINITIONS

- 5.1. Child means a person involved in the activities of Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic (including athletes) and under the age of 18 years unless otherwise stated under the law applicable to the child.
- 5.2. Child protection means any responsibility, measure or activity undertaken to safeguard children from harm.
- 5.3. Sexual offence means a criminal offence involving sexual activity or actions of indecency or any act which exposes a child to, or involves a child in, sexual activity or matters beyond his or her understanding or contrary to accepted community standards. Sexually offence behaviours can include the fondling of genitals, masturbation, oral sex, vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, finger or any other object, fondling of breasts, voyeurism, exhibitionism, and exposing the child to or involving the child in pornography. It includes child grooming, which includes actions deliberately undertaken with the aim of befriending and establishing an emotional connection with a child (or the child's carer, family or supervisor) to lower the child's inhibitions and prepare them for engagement in a sexual offence.
- 5.4. Mandatory reporter means a person who is legally required to make a report to the Department of Human Services or the Police if they form a belief on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection. It includes teachers, principals, registered psychologists, nurses, doctors and midwives.

6. RECOGNISING AND REPORTING CHILD ABUSE

- 6.1. A person may, in the course of participating in the sport or other activities of Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic or carrying out their work, form a belief on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection from child abuse.
- 6.2. If a person is concerned about an immediate risk to a child's safety, the person must phone "000" as soon as practicable.
- 6.3. Child abuse can be divided into four categories:
- a) Physical abuse: occurs when a child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, significant harm as a result of a physical injury, such as a non-accidental physical injury.

- b) Sexual abuse: occurs when a child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, significant harm as a result of sexual abuse, such as when a child is exploited, or used by another for his or her sexual gratification or sexual arousal, or for that of others.
- c) Emotional and psychological abuse: occurs when a child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, emotional or psychological harm of such a kind that the child's emotional or intellectual development is or is likely to be significantly damaged; and
- d) Neglect: occurs when a child's physical development or health has been, or is likely to be significantly damaged. It refers to an omission, such as depriving a child of food, clothing, warmth, hygiene, intellectual stimulation, supervision and safety, attachment to and affection from adults, or medical care.

6.4. Child abuse includes any actions that results in actual or potential harm to a child, in circumstances where the child's parents have not protected, or are unlikely to protect, the child.

Mandatory Reporters

- 6.5. Select classes of people in the community (including teachers, nurses and doctors) are required by law to report to the Child Protection Unit of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) where they have formed a belief, on reasonable grounds, that a child is in need of protection because they have suffered (or are likely to suffer) significant harm due to physical or sexual abuse.
- 6.6. This report must be made as soon as practicable, and after each occasion where he or she becomes aware of a further reasonable grounds for the belief.

Reasonable grounds for belief

- 6.7. A reasonable belief is formed if a reasonable person believes that:
 - a) the child is in need of protection;
 - b) the child has suffered or is likely to suffer significant harm as a result of physical or sexual injury; and
 - c) the child's parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child.
- 6.8. To form a reasonable belief, you should consider and objectively assess all the relevant facts, such as the source of the allegation and how it was communicated, the nature of and details of the allegation, and whether there is any other related matters known regarding the alleged perpetrator.
- 6.9. A 'reasonable belief' or a 'belief on reasonable grounds' is not the same as having proof, but is more than mere rumour or speculation.
- 6.10. You will have reasonable grounds to notify if:
 - a) a child states that they have been physically or sexually abused;

- b) a child states that they know someone who has been physically or sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves);
- c) someone who knows a child states that the child has been physically or sexually abused;
- d) professional observations of the child's behaviour or development leads a professional to form a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused or is likely to be abused; or
- e) signs of abuse lead to a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused.

Voluntary Reporters

- 6.11 In addition to the mandatory reporting obligations above, any person who believes on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection from any form of child abuse, may disclose that information to the Police or DHHS.

Reporting Child Sexual Abuse

- 6.12 If a person receives information that leads them to form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed in Victoria against a child (under the age of 16 years) by another person (of or over the age of 18 years), the person has a legal obligation to disclose that information to the Police as soon as it is practicable. Individuals who fail to comply with this obligation under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) may be subject to a penalty of 3 years imprisonment.

Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic Approach to Reports of Abuse

- 6.13 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic supports and encourages a person to make a report to the Police or DHHS if they form a belief on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection, or they are concerned about the safety, health or wellbeing of a child.
- 6.14 Any person that makes a report in good faith in accordance with their reporting obligations (whether mandatory or discretionary) will be supported by Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic, and will not be penalised by Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic for making the report.
- 6.15 If a person is uncertain as to whether they should make a report to an external authority in relation to the safety of a child, they may speak to the CEO of Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic for guidance and information. If in doubt, ask for assistance.
- 6.16 If an allegation is made against a member of staff or volunteer, Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will follow the reporting procedure and take all steps to ensure that the safety of the child is paramount. An initial step will involve the withdrawal of the accused person from active duty, which could entail standing down, reassignment to a role without direct contact with children, working under closer supervision during an investigation, working from home, or any other measures deemed appropriate depending on the seriousness of the allegation.

- 6.17 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will investigate allegations of inappropriate conduct against a child in accordance with procedural fairness and will handle the allegations in a confidential manner to the greatest extent possible.
- 6.18 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will cooperate with the directions of the Police and/or DHHS in relation to any investigation conducted by these authorities.
- 6.19 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will keep a register of any allegations regarding inappropriate conduct.

7. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PERSONNEL PROTECTING CHILDREN

Personnel involved in protecting children include the board, management, staff and volunteers within Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic. Those people have responsibilities in relation to protection of children and are expected to:

- 7.1 understand the rights of children, as appropriate to their role;
- 7.2 respect the cultural and religious practices of families who access Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic's services, programs or events;
- 7.3 understand and appropriately respond to the needs of children with developmental delays or disabilities;
- 7.4 appropriately act on any concerns raised by children;
- 7.5 understand the definitions, indicators and impact of child abuse;
- 7.6 know and follow regulations in relation to the care of children;
- 7.7 co-operate with police and/or other formal investigations to the best of their ability; and
- 7.8 not harm or exploit children who access Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic's services.

8 CHILD SAFE AND CHILD FRIENDLY GUIDELINES TO PREVENT AND MANAGE RISKS OF CHILD ABUSE

8.1 Change Rooms

Adult officials, regardless of gender, should only enter change rooms if accompanied by another adult. Prior to entering change rooms, officials should notify the people in the change room of their intended entrance. For the avoidance of doubt this requirement does not apply to parents/legal guardians when in a room with their child.

8.2 Buddy System

The Buddy system will be implemented on all children programs and coaching sessions. This entails all participants being assigned another participant as their buddy. The buddy system will be used by instructors/coaches to ensure all participants have successfully exited the water upon request, to ensure all participants are accounted for on the river to double check participants numbers should there be an emergency evacuation for any reason, and to accompany each other when using the public toilets.

8.3 Using the Public Toilets

No participant is to enter the public toilets until/unless:

- a) The toilets have been checked by either an instructor/coach or the assisting administration officer. This includes checking for other persons in the toilet and any things of concern such as syringes, unclean or other compromising issues.
- b) The participant is accompanied into the toilet by their buddy or another participant (Not an instructor/coach or administration officer)
- c) To avoid lack of supervision and ratio compromise, it is advised that all participants use the toilet facilities prior to the activity and during the rest breaks. This will avoid toilet breaks in the middle of an on water session.

8.4 Adults under investigation

Adults under investigation in relation to a matter involving child abuse, or any matter which has the potential to jeopardise their Working With Children Check (WWCC) (or if based in another State the equivalent requirement) status may be prohibited, by the Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic Board, from participating in Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic activities.

8.5 Coach Assistance

- a) All coaches must ensure that all physical contact with athletes which occurs when coaching is appropriate for the situation and necessary for the athlete's safety. It is strongly recommended that:
 - b) coaches ensure that there are other adults present whenever coaching;
 - c) coaches take care to explain the procedure to the child prior to beginning any physical contact; and
 - d) coaches obtain consent from the athlete prior to beginning any physical contact.

9 ENGAGING NEW PERSONNEL

9.1 The minimum standard for background checks of employees and volunteers of Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic and its members is the law as it applies in Victoria.

9.2 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic undertakes a comprehensive recruitment and screening process for all staff and volunteers which aims to:

- a) promote and protect the safety of all children who participate in the activities of Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic
- b) identify and recruit the safest and most suitable candidates who share Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic values and commitment to protect children; and

- c) prevent a person from working at Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic if they pose an unacceptable risk to children.
- 9.3 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic requires staff and volunteers to pass the recruitment and screening process prior to commencing their engagement with Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic.
- 9.4 As part of the screening and recruitment process, an applicant must provide appropriate evidence (e.g. WWCC or other state equivalent and/or Police check) to show that they are suitable to work with children and young people in a recreational setting.
- a) All Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic staff and Board members require a WWCC; and
 - b) The following key event personnel must have a valid WWCC:
 - (i) those paid by Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic for their services
 - (ii) volunteers;
 - (iii) relevant contractors who may have unsupervised access to children; and
 - (iv) anyone else who Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic staff feel requires a WWCC due to the nature of the work that they are undertaking for Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic
- 9.5 The type of evidence that an applicant is required to provide to Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will vary depending on the type of position that they are applying for. However, an applicant will not be offered a position until they provide the required evidence to Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic.
- 9.6 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will exercise discretion and may require applicants to provide a Police check in accordance with the law and as appropriate, before they commence their engagement and during their time with Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic in regular intervals.
- 9.7 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will undertake thorough reference checks prior to engaging any personnel.
- 9.8 Once engaged, Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic will provide staff and volunteers with access to this policy and staff and volunteers must review and acknowledge their understanding of this policy.
- 9.9 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic requires that affiliated clubs ensure all staff and volunteers (including coaches and any officials) likely to have contact with children have a current WWCC, which needs to be signed off annually as part of the affiliation process. Clubs which do not comply with their legal obligations will be found to have not complied with the Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic affiliation requirements and will be disaffiliated.
- 9.10 Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic requires all affiliated club personnel including Committee Members, Volunteers, Coaches and anyone else who has contact with children to possess a valid working with children check. Any costs associated with gaining a valid WWCC will be dealt with in a manner determined by that club.

10 RISK MANAGEMENT APPROACH

- 10.1 Child safety is a part of Canoeing Victoria/Paddle Vic's overall risk management approach.

11 POLICY BREACHES

- 11.1 It is a breach of this policy for any person or organisation to which this policy applies, to have been found to have done anything contrary to this policy. Any person who may breach this policy is subject to discipline processes.
