

Massive Murray Paddle 19th – 23th Nov 2018

The Marathon is one of the world's longest canoe races covering a distance of 404km over its five day duration. The event originated in 1969, when ten friends decided to paddle the Murray River to raise $250 for charity. The Marathon attracts many paddlers and support crews.

The event starts in Yarrowonga and finishes in Swan Hill, passing through Tocumwal, Picnic Point, Echuca, Torrumbarry, Cohuna and Murrabit on the way

Do not miss competing in the Murray Marathon 50th Anniversary
